

South-Central Heartland Spring Rally
April 11, 12, 13, 2008
Skyline Ranch RV Park Bandera, Texas

Where in the world is Bandera? You had to ask? Well, here's the scoop: Bandera is the Cowboy Capitol of the WORLD! It's a fun-loving town right in the middle of the Texas Hill Country. Since it'll be spring, that means the Texas bluebonnets will blanket the hills. The park itself is right on one of the lower hills, we'll be safe even if the Medina River, that meanders thru the ranch, becomes more than a clear babbling brook.

Amenities at Skyline: one of the biggest and nicest meeting rooms with places to eat, play board games, watching big-screen TV or did I mention eating? Outdoors deer and birds wander thru the park, but behind a strong fence are longhorn cattle. It's a shutter-bug's delight, but if your trailer's not available, Skyline reserves rooms just for folks in our club on the ranch.

The town's everything you'd expect in the Cowboy Capitol, and Skyline's rates are only $20.00 per day. Sign up deadline is March 10, 2008. So join Jack & Vivian Fox along with the others and contact Martha Thompson, (903) 753-5893 or mmdct@juno.com for a fun week-end rally.
